Positiviti, Inc. will receive and document deposits/contributions of loaned funds and allocate funds for operational objectives and purposes related to international microloan lending.

Positiviti, Inc. provides administrative, technical, and facilitative support services for individual microlenders seeking to engage in microlending efforts with MFI's, including Open Valley Investment Group Limited in Kenya. Positiviti, Inc. does not act as a lender, financial advisor, or guarantor of loan performance. Positiviti does not issue loans or guarantee repayment. All loan agreements are entered into directly between individual international lenders and MFI's in Kenya. Past performance is not indicative of future results. Participation in microlending carries risk, and individuals should independently research and conduct their own due diligence before making any financial commitments. Use of this platform is governed by our Terms of Service and Privacy Policy.
